Clarence Andrew Mills Jr.

December 18, 1946 - February 13, 2020

Clarence Andrew Mills, Jr., formerly of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, was born on December 18, 1946, the son of the late Clarence A. Mills, Sr. and Evelyn R. Waters. He entered into eternal rest at the age of seventy-three (73) on Thursday, February 13, 2020 at Salisbury Rehabilitation and Nursing Center in Salisbury, Maryland.

Clarence received his education in the Worcester County school system, graduating from Worcester High School in Newark, Maryland. He worked for Mountaire Farms in Selbyville, Delaware and Sea Bay Inn in Ocean City, Maryland. Clarence was honorably discharged from the United States Marine Corps, where he was employed as a Military Police.

He was a member of St. Matthews United Methodist Church in Box Iron, Maryland. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends. In his free time, he loved to watch Westerns, TV Land and James Bond movies.

Clarence leaves to cherish precious memories: two daughters, Katrece Harmon (Anthony), with whom he resided until he was admitted to Salisbury Rehab and Nursing Center and Crystal Isaacs (Lamont) of Waldorf, Maryland; thirteen (13) grandchildren; six (6) great-grandchildren; one niece, Janine Croxton (Tom) of Acworth, Georgia and one nephew, John Thomas, Jr. of Mt. Holly, New Jersey.

He was preceded in death by one sister Linda E. Mills–Thomas.
