

Nicholas Allen Pittman

April 4, 1984 - January 24, 2022

HIS JOURNEY...

Nicholas Allen Pittman, beloved son of Emma Handy and the late Lester Pittman, Sr., departed from us on Monday, January 24, 2022.

He was born on April 1, 1984 at Peninsula Regional Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland. Nicholas was a very serious child and as he grew older, he worked with his father and brothers.

Educated and graduating from the Worcester County public school system, Nicholas started his employment as a cook at Ocean Downs Racetrack and Casino in Berlin, Maryland. Later he worked at Pit & Pub in Ocean City, Maryland where he worked until his passing. Nicholas was well-loved and respected by co-workers and customers alike. His laugh and smile were both contagious.

His memory is left to be cherished by: his mother, Emma Handy; his two brothers, Kenneth and Jamieson Pittman; his sisters, Stephanie Pittman and Patricia Fletcher; a host of aunts and two uncles; one brother-in-law, Marvin Fletcher and many nieces and nephews.

Nicholas was preceded in death by his father Lester Pittman, Sr. and one brother, Lester Pittman, Jr.

We loved him dearly and he will be sorely missed by all.

“ I had the pleasure of working alongside Nick for nearly a decade. The things that I will always hold close to my heart about him was that he was passive, mild-tempered, easygoing, laid back, and the most level-headed guy I've ever worked with in my life. It didn't matter how busy it got, or how crazy it got behind the line in the Pit & Pub kitchen. Nick always kept his cool. Not only that, but he was also probably the nicest guy you'd ever want to meet. He never had a harsh or angry word to say about anybody. To me, Nick Pittman was more than a colleague. He was a friend, and a brother. The empty space in our hearts and in the Pit & Pub kitchen is definitely being felt. To say that he will be missed doesn't even begin to cover it. So long, my friend, and Godspeed. We'll all see you on the other side. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of your family.
