

Ruth Ann Williams Smith

September 3, 1958 - May 24, 2021

On May 24, 2021, Ruth Ann Williams Smith, of Centreville, Maryland, cried her last tears and departed her life after six years of sickness, at the Complete Care Corsica Hills Nursing Home, Center in Centreville, Maryland. She was 62.

Ruth Ann was born in Easton Memorial Hospital, in Easton, Maryland, to the Late Elva A. Williams, on September 3, 1958. Ruth was also reared by her grandmother, Evelyn Williams and her aunt, Ann Williams. Ruth graduated from Queen Anne's County High School, class of 1977.

Without a doubt, Ruth loved her family. She enjoyed attending family cookouts and loved to laugh and play cards with family and friends.

Above all things, Ruth loved and knew the Lord, who kept her through her sickness. She continued to stay in good spirits and her right mind. She would say "I may have lost my mobility, but I sure haven't lost my mind." It would always put a bright smile on her face when family and friends would visit her and have a moment of prayer with her before they left.

Ruth worked variety of jobs, which included Allen Family Foods, fast food restaurants, USA Fulfillment and Black & Decker. Her last employment, prior to becoming ill, was in the shipping department at LaMotte Chemical.

Ruth leaves her boyfriend, Robert Hall, of Centreville, MD; stepfather, Hector Bonilla of New Castle DE; father, Clifton Dallas Wright of Greensboro, MD; two sisters, Rosa Benitez (John) and Roberta Pressley (Frank) both of Newark DE; a cousin who was like a brother, Timothy Williams of Price, MD; two nieces, Chynna Hernandez and Tianna Pressley; two nephews, Manny Hernandez and D'Andre Pressley; two great nieces; four great nephews; one favorite cousin, Alfred Wilson of Ridgley, MD; aunt, Joan Redwood of Port St. Lucie, FL; one special friend, Patricia Wright, who was like a sister since childhood, of Chester, MD; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ Ruth has had a long battle with her sickness. God, choose to call her home where her rewards wait. I hung around Ruth alot when she was well, and I did get to visit her a few times in the nursing homes. Each time I went, I found her in the best of spirit. I know in my heart that Ruth is at peace!
