“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death; restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Heaven has called her home! There is nothing in this world that can explain the hurt and loss of a mother. But that God has prepared a place for her. She has joined her mother, father, uncles and aunts that were pioneers in the Spanish Pentecostal movement. I will always remember her smile. She was a wonderful friend and family member. Caring soul for those that needed help. I share the sadness and loss that the family has endure.... God Bless Us All! What comforts me is that her name is written now in heaven along with the saints that went before her. GOD BLESS.
