“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ It is so sad to lose a dear loved one in death. Especially one who had so much love for others. Almighty God never forgets those who gives so much of themselves to help others as M's Addie did. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief, The bible gives us hope of seeing our loved ones again in the near future. (John 5:28&29) Until that time may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ To all the family of this wonderful lady... I have just now learned of Addie's passing. We have been out of town and out of touch. I can't tell you how very much this saddens me. She was a "mother" to me also when I was small - some of you have heard one of her favorite stories about me. Please know how much I loved her and that I share your grief. I'm so sorry that I was not here for her services. You are all in our thoughts and prayers at this sad time. With much love...
