

Adlyn Jane Fleming (Wilson)

August 18, 1928 - November 10, 2018

Adlyn Fleming, daughter of the late William and Margaret Jones, and wife of the late Louis Fleming, was born on Saturday, August 18, 1928, in Laurel, Delaware. She departed this life on Saturday, November 10, 2018.

Adlyn received her elementary and secondary education in Laurel, Delaware, graduating from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. Adlyn then moved to Brooklyn, New York to pursue a nursing career, earning her nursing degree.

While in New York, she met and married the late Louis Fleming, and from this union, one child was born, Anthony Fleming. After her long stay in New York, Adlyn later retired and returned to her roots in Laurel, Delaware.

Biggie, as she was affectionately called, was a very lively, spunky person, and could sometimes be cantankerous. She loved taking morning walks through the neighborhood and she also enjoyed gardening on a regular basis. Biggie enjoyed activities such as bowling, playing Bingo and going to the Senior Center. She was a long-time volunteer at the Good Samaritan Thrift Store in Laurel, Delaware.

Biggie was always adamant about maintaining a healthy lifestyle as is quite evident of her long life.

She began attending church as a small child, with her family and was a lifetime member of Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. Church in Laurel, Delaware.

In addition to her husband Louis, she was preceded in death by her brother, Dennis, and sisters Jean Greene and Olga Wilson.

Survivors left to cherish her memory are her son, Anthony and his wife, Elaine Fleming of Laurel, Delaware. She also leaves to mourn her loss, two granddaughters, Shanta Morris and Antoinette Fleming of New York, two great grand children and a host of cousins and friends.

“ So sorry to hear about Mrs Fleming. She and Mr Fleming and Dennis were friends of my father Ray Glerum. I was also her banker when I worked at the Bank of Delmarva. I just found it out today. My condolences to her family.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"

“ \"The span of our life is 70 years, or 80 if one is especially strong. But they are filled with trouble and sorrow; they quickly pass by, and away we fly. (Psalms 90:10) Life is short. Adlyn was exceptional to reach 90. Paradise awaits her.
