“ Please accept my deepest condolences. I am praying for strength and comfort for you and the family at this time. I will remember Adrian as we started our 1st job together fresh out of high school. Her and I would talk and I remember how she would light up when talking about her lay away for Christmas. She was a very kind person who would help others out if she could. Adrian will be greatly missed.

“ It is so sad to lose a loved one especially one so young. Almighty God did not purpose that mankind should die. He created us to live forever. Adam and Eve brought sin and death on all mankind, but Almighty God promises to remove death, sickness and pain. (Rev. 21:3&4) What a loving God!! So please look forward to the time when you can be reunited with your loved one. (John 5:28&29) Please accept my deepest sympathy and may Almighty God bless your entire family during your time of grief.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up all those who are now sleeping in death; restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may the Most High God(Psalm 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
