

Ajiyosola Olaoluwa Ibiwonke Solomon

December 25, 1958 - February 14, 2021

Ajiyosola Olaoluwa Ibiwonke Solomon, was born to late Idowu Ibiwonke and Ruth Ibiwonke, on December 25, 1958. He departed this life on February 14, 2021, at approximately 10AM, in Dover, Delaware.

Solomon was known as Ola by his wife and Laosha by his siblings. He was a great husband, father, brother and mentor. Solomon worked as a nurse for most of his life. He was hardworking, selfless and a loving person. He had a positive impact on the lives of everyone who crossed his path and was always looking for a way to make everyone have a better future.

Solomon loved singing and always had a story to tell. He enjoyed being at the service of others and hated being a burden to others. He was an amazing father to his three children and a loving husband to his wife, who all loved him very much.

Solomon was preceded in death by his parents and brothers.

Solomon will be lovingly remembered by his wife and children. He will also be forever remembered by many other cousins, nephews, nieces, family and friends.

Oluwatoyin Ibiwonke

Tribute Wall

“ Ajiosola Olaoluwa Ibronke Solomon

Pastor DerrickLowman - March 09, 2021 at 09:47 AM