

Alan Tyrone Neal

June 4, 1955 - January 14, 2017

Alan Tyrone Neal, aka "Pie" was born on June 4, 1955 in Milford, DE. He was the son of Ernest Paskins and the late Irene Neal.

Alan attended Woodbridge High School in Bridgeville, DE where he played basketball and football. On June 28, 1974 Alan entered the US Army where he served until 1985. Alan was stationed in many places like Ft. Dix, NJ and Ft. Benning, GA. After leaving the US Army he lived in Detroit, MI and later returned to Bridgeville.

Alan was employed at Harry Banning's service station before entering the army. He also worked at Ralph and Paul Scrapple House, M & T Trash Company and his latest employment was at Patrick's Waste Company.

Alan was preceded in death by his mother, Irene Neal, Aunts Dorothy Neal, Myrna Dixon, Maxine Neal, and Shirley Ann Neal as well as Uncles Daniel Paskins and Donald Polk, Sr.

Alan loved his family and treated each in a special way. He had a unique relationship with each one and made them feel as if they were his favorite.

He leaves to cherish his memory father, Ernest Paskins (Deloise) of Salisbury, MD, daughter, Consandra Weal of Washington, DC, sister Kim Horsey

(George) of Delmar, MD, brother, Todd Albury (Hanh Ti Mai) of Kissimmee, FL, 4 grandchildren, Juwan, Kiara, JuVaye, and Joshua Weal all of Washington, DC and one great granddaughter Ayriah Weal, two aunts, Cornelia Suggs (Calvin) of Upper Marlboro, MD, Sclestena Perkins of Detroit, MI and one uncle, Harold Paskins (Juanita) of Ft. Wayne, IN, a special friend Anna Rosie Smack Thomas and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Alan Tyrone Neal, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.