

Alfred R. Davis Sr.

June 15, 1945 - June 19, 2021

Alfred R. Davis, Sr., was born June 15, 1945, to Hurley and Virginia Davis.

He was the youngest of 7 children. His five brothers and one sister all preceded him in death, as well as his parents; his son, Alfred, Jr.; daughter, Sandra; and son-in-law, John Exum, Sr.

Alfred's life course ended on June 19, 2021, after a courageous health battle.

Alfred is survived by his beloved wife of 42 years, Mary Davis; daughters, Kim Davis and Tiffany Anderson; sons, Jerry Davis, Andre Hall, (daughter-in-law Irene), Annette Exum, Russell Hall, Terry (daughter-in-law Lynette) and Michelle Carter; 20 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Alfred was a hero to most. He was a humble, hard-working, gentle man that loved his family very much.

Alfred grew up in New Jersey, loved to play baseball and football. He retired from Local 222, putting his life on the line daily, working in nuclear plants. He loved cooking and he also loved to dance the night away with his wife. Alfred was very caring, and loving. He did not like bickering, and would always tell a joke to break the tension. He was always there when anyone needed help.

Mary says Alfred was “the peanut butter to her jelly”. He loved shopping with Mary, loved oldies music and was a very sharp dresser.

One of Alfred's favorite scriptures was Psalm 83:18, “May people know that you, whose name is Jehovah, you alone are the most high over all the earth.” Alfred never missed his congregation Zoom meetings. His joy was telling others about his God Jehovah and the wonderful promises God has in store for all who love him. Alfred’s final plea to his surviving family was to please come to know His God Jehovah.
