

Alfred J. Dorsey

April 22, 1935 - October 7, 2013

Alfred Dorsey Sr., 78, of Millsboro Delaware, also known as “Nick” to family, and friends and "Pops" to his sons was born on April 22, 1935. He was the son of the late Maggie and George W. Dorsey of Accomack County, Virginia.

He departed this life on Monday, October 7, 2013 at the Delaware Hospice Center in Milford, Delaware after a long illness.

He was married to his loving wife, Delois Dorsey for the past 45 years. Nick received his early education at “204”, known also as East Millsboro School. He started his career in farming then moved to Paterson, New Jersey, working as a parking attendant. Nick later returned to Delaware in 1974. At that time, he became a construction worker, building high-rise luxury hotels in Ocean City, Maryland. Finally he began driving trucks for Showell Poultry and later Perdue Farms in Showell, Maryland, until his retirement in 2004.

Nick is preceded in death by his son, Robert M. Stokes, Sr. He is survived by his wife, Delois Dorsey; two sons, William T. Stokes and Alfred Dorsey, Jr.; six grandsons, Robert Stokes, Jr., William Stokes, Jr., Rodney Stokes, Derrick Stokes, Daryl Stokes and Dimitri Stokes; five sisters, Malissa Dorsey, Phyllis Lewis, Levola Hopkins, Regina Taylor and Stephanie Dukes; three brothers, Chester Dorsey, Apostle Ivory L. Hopkins and Nathaniel Hopkins. Nick is also survived by four sisters-in-law, Helen Farrell, Evelyn Hopkins, Ruth Dorsey and Sue Hopkins; three brothers-in-law, Henry Stokes, Harold Stokes and Rozelle Dukes; two daughters-in-law, Gloria Stokes and Dale R. Stokes; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Tribute Wall

KH

“ Miss Delois and family,
My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you and your family. We truly miss those that go before us but it gives us comfort to know they are in a better place with no pain and that we will see them again some day. May God Bless You and Your Family. With Deepest Sympathy,
Keetie

Keetie Hopkins - October 11, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SH

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

Sherry - October 10, 2013 at 12:00 AM