“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ When we lose someone in death, the pain and grief can be unbearable, but the Bible gives us real comfort in 2 Cor. 1: 3,4 knowing that the "God of all comfort, comforts us in all our trials". And so in knowing this John 5:28,29 where "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Hold on to these promises and please know that they are things to come now and the near future
