

Alice Elizabeth Cann

October 16, 1928 - November 2, 2019

Alice Elizabeth Cann, age 91, daughter of the late Ernest and Ethel Johnson, was born October 16, 1928, in Rock Hall, Maryland. Alice was educated in the Kent County School System.

During her life Alice made many contributions between New York and Maryland. Those contributions included: domestic work, family care, caterer, Campbell Soup, school volunteering, and a small business ownership of Chippy's Inn, in Edesville, Maryland.

In her social life, Alice enjoyed going to the Cotton Club and Apollo Theater, in New York, bowling, taking cruises, playing Bingo, and playing cards with friends and family. Alice hosted many picnics and Thanksgiving dinners and was always open to feeding the whole neighborhood. Alice was always in someone's kitchen, giving advice, which she preferred to do behind the scenes. Alice belonged to the ELKS, The Rose Buds and was an active missionary at Holy Trinity A.M.E. Church. Alice was loved by many.

Alice Elizabeth Cann was preceded in death by her parents, Ethel and Ernest Johnson; her husband, James Roosevelt Cann, Sr.; brothers, Purnell and Sylvester Johnson; sister, Belle Wickes; daughter, Yolanda Brown; grandson, Eric Brice, Jr. and daughter-in-law, Barbara Brice.

Alice leaves to cherish her memories, son, Eric Brice, Sr.; daughter, Bernadette Clinkscales (Eugene); son, James Cann, Jr., (Linda); goddaughter, Gail Hynson (Steve); sister-in-law, Alice May Hopkins; grandchildren, Lisa Brice, Atiya Clinkscales, Tamara Rhue (Damon), Kareem Clinkscales, Dr. Ericka Smith (Courtney); Tyeisha Williams (Michael), Jamale Brown, Jamis Cann (Courtney), Eric Brice 3rd and Jenelle Cann; 14 great-grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Tribute Wall

TC

“ Such a beautiful spirit and kind hearted woman. I will surely miss all the great times in Rockhall . Those memories will stay with me forever. Rest Cousin Alice(more like an aunt to me). You will truly be missed.Loving you forever,Tyra Cooper

Tyra Cooper - November 05, 2019 at 08:55 PM

AM

“ Cousin Alice will be deeply missed by our family she was a loving always caring spirit. Always ready to help and be there for her family and community especially her church. Her fast walking always on the go spirit will be missed.

Algie D. Marvel - November 05, 2019 at 10:07 AM