

Alice Rodella Nutter

February 28, 1937 - March 5, 2013

Alice Rodella Butler Nutter, who will always be fondly remembered as Ma, Mom-Mom, Mommy Alice, A.R., Aunt Al, Aunt Sitt, Num-a-Yums, Al B and Miss Al, Aunt Alice, was born in Quantico, Maryland, on February 28, 1937 to the late James Wesley Butler and Virginia Walker Butler. God, in His infinite wisdom, took Alice home from this life to an eternal life on Tuesday, March 5, 2013 at Anchorage Nursing Home.

Alice graduated from I.C. Norcom High School in Portsmouth, Virginia, Class of 1955. She started her career at Seacrest Packing House and retired the first Black Secretary for H.B. Kennerly & Sons in Nanticoke, Maryland.

Some of her favorite past times were going to the slots, playing bingo, listening to music, and having conversations on the phone. She loved her two grandsons, whom she helped in the raising of, Troy C. Nutter (“T”) and David L. Nutter (“Dumpy”). She also helped in the raising of her niece, Rena L. Austin. Alice was raised by a special aunt Alice and uncle Leonard.

She leaves to cherish in her memory: two children—Carlisa L. Nutter of Salisbury, Maryland and Eric A. Nutter of Dover, Delaware; two grandchildren, Troy C. And David L. Nutter; one sister Ruby B. Freemam of Portsmouth, Virginia; one brother-in-law, William C. Nutter of New Castle, Delaware and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, great-great nieces, great-great nephews, other relatives and friends.

Special love is sent to the following for always being there for her until the end: Anna Leatherbury, Helen Allen, Annette Evans, Earl Waters, Frank Brown, Wauleeah Goslee, Gary Elsey, Nate Copes and Robert L. Warren, Sr. Special thanks is given to the staff of Anchorage Nursing Home (second floor).

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lucious C. Nutter, Jr.; two brothers, Richard & Leonard Butler and two sisters, Volda Lee and Alberta Mackey.
