“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ I worked with Alice Marie back in the 1990s into the early 2000s at Thompson Publishing Group. She was a warm, quirky, kind lady. I moved away from the Shore and all these years later I still remember her so very fondly. Condolences to the whole family. She will be missed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Praying for the family of our beloved Mrs. Alice Truitt. I worked with Miss Alice at Wendy's White Marlin Mall, Ocean City, MD. Her smile and love for her co workers was a joy.

“ In this difficult time may the God of all comfort and his promises of the time when there will be no more death and we can again enjoy life with those weve lost bring you comfort. (Isaiah 25:8; John 5:28, 29)
