“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I remember all the times he would come by my house and we would get in his Thunderbird and ride. We would do our thing, and always ended up in the American Legion. We would party until the next morning and then do it again when we would meet up again. I remember when we would go to Patrick Avenue in Salisbury to Aunt Neet and Mr. Winfield's house. Huckabuck, Shelly, and myself would do it all over again. You will be missed by many, and until we meet again my brother. Gone but never forgotten.

“ I would like to express my warmest condolences to my extended family during this time of loss. I hope that we all remember the good times with Huck and feel a measure of comfort that he is no longer enduring suffering. Just like that God promises a time when there will be a resurrection and we have the opportunity to see loved ones in perfect conditions. Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:4 Love you all!

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your recent loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. I have always received comfort from the Bible's word at Philippians 4:7 which reads “and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus”. I hope you can receive comfort from these words as well. Margo Simmons
