Alton's Journey

Alton Shivers, Sr. was born on August 29, 1934. He was called home to be with the Lord at the age of eighty-eight (88) on Monday, October 24, 2022. Alton was born and raised in Augusta, Georgia, where he attended public schools there. He later moved to Salisbury, Maryland.

Alton, as he was known to some, but others knew him as "Easy, Pop and APP." Pop found employment as a construction worker, farm laborer, and work at the tree company Asplundh, until his retirement in the late 1990's.

Pop was nothing more than a laid back, easy-going man, but he was also a great father, grandfather and great grandfather. He enjoyed life and spending his time... Cooking, Hunting, Gardening, Fishing, Playing Cards and Shooting Pool.

Alton was preceded in death by his wife, Mazie Shivers, his son, Shelton Shivers (aka "Poncho") and his old friend, William Morris (aka "Big Bo").

Surviving to cherish everlasting memories are: his four sons, Karl Yarns, Keith Yarns, Alton Shivers, Jr. and Norman Yarns; his daughter, Glenda McPherson; his grandchildren, Alteisha Shivers, Devante Shivers, Shaleena Shivers, Kamri Church, Tykia Yarns and Brandon Yarns; Antonio Chaney, who was like another son and many more nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and in-laws.

SUBMITTED WITH LOVE,
