“ *To Hoss\u2019s family and friends;I am truly sorry to learn of my friend passing away. Hoss was truly a good person every day. To say he will be sorely missed is an understatement. I pray that in the days to come that God will ease your pain of loss and let the memories you have of him, flood you with remembrances of the time you shared with him. When you think of him, you will smile again and know that this is not the end, but just a temporary parting till you meet again. When you feel a soft breeze brush gently across your face, it is he, who is near. \u201cNo one dies as long as the love in our heart and our memories are still alive!There is a quote by Nishan Panwar, noted and prolific Hindu poet that says, Death takes the bodyGod takes the soulOur mind holds the memoriesOur heart keeps the loveOur faith lets us know we will meet again\u201dGod takes the soulOur mind holds the memoriesOur heart keeps the loveOur faith lets us know we will meet again\u201dMay God bring comfort and healing to all who loved him.
