

Alvin Gilliam Jr.

February 19, 1943 - March 1, 2021

Alvin Gilliam, Jr., was born on February 19, 1943, in Edenton, North Carolina, to the late Alvin and Mary Gilliam, Sr. After a short illness, Alvin completed his life's journey in Waldorf, Maryland, on March 1, 2021, surrounded by family.

Gil, as he was known to everyone, graduated from Aviation High School in Queens, New York. After graduation, he joined the United States Army, and later, joined the United States Air Force. In the Air Force, Gil served as an aircraft mechanic, specializing on the C-5. After leaving the Air Force, he was employed by Perdue Farms, in Milford, Delaware, until he retired.

Gil was a quiet and loving man; he would give you the shirt off his back or a ride anywhere. He loved watching crime shows, westerns, and his Philadelphia Eagles. If you ever played a game with him, he cheated and would give you a side eye if you called him on it. In recent years you could find him at the horseshoe pit, passing on his knowledge, and saying, "Can I ask you a question?"

In addition to his parents, Gil was preceded in death by his wife, Patricia.

He leaves to cherish his memory six daughters, Wendy Brown, Sheila Lewis (Andrew), Joyce Gerringer, Glynis Allsbrook, Angela Garvin-German (Christina) and Kimberly Hendricks-Burch (Michael); one son, Kevin Brown

(Denise); 13 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; three brothers, Lloyd Gilliam (Loretta), Darrell Gilliam (Juana) and Jeffery Gilliam, two sisters, Brenda Duncan and Adrienne Gilliam; in-laws, Barbara and Joseph Matthews and Paulette Patterson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
