

Alyssa Monique Kennedy

October 20, 1989 - May 31, 2019

Alyssa Monique Kennedy, daughter of Teresa Renietta Taylor and Donald Kennedy, was born on October 20, 1989, at Union Hospital in Elkton, Maryland. Alyssa was educated from elementary to middle school in the Kent County Public School System. She graduated from Kennard High School, Centreville, Maryland in 2007. After graduating, Alyssa worked at Chestertown Rehabilitation Center, Corsica Hills Center in Centreville, Maryland, and Envoy of Denton, in Denton, Maryland, where she was a Certified Nursing Assistant. She was also employed at Royal Farms and Goose Creek Mini-Market both in Denton, Maryland, as a clerk.

Alyssa was a member of the People's New Hope Center of Denton, Maryland, Pastor C. A. Savoy.

Alyssa was predeceased by her mother, Teresa Renietta Taylor.

Alyssa leaves behind to cherish her memory, one brother, Donald Kennedy Jr. (Cambridge, Maryland); one sister, Tiffany Kennard (Delaware); one grandmother, Nadine Hodges (Pennsylvania); great-grandmother, Elnora E. Brown (Worton, Maryland); three aunts, Vanolia Brown (Chestertown, Maryland), Sherle Brown (Worton, Maryland) and Bridget Burnhardt (Sharon Hill, Pennsylvania); two uncles, Reverend Alvin A. Brown (Chester, Pennsylvania) and Weldon R. Brown (Worton, Maryland); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many others who loved her.

Alyssa was a quiet soul, but she cared about people. We are going to miss her so much.

“I’m Free, Thank the Lord I’m Free...No More Chains Holding Me.”

Lovingly Submitted by the Family

Tribute Wall

MS

“ My Deepest Condolences to The Family Allyssa aka Sissy is going to be missed RIP I'm gonna to miss our time at Envoy

Michelle Sharp - June 06, 2019 at 09:44 AM

DW

“ *I am so sorry for you loss. I only met her two times when she was visiting at my sister's house during the Christmas holiday. She was such a sweet person. I pray that God will continue to strengthen and comfort you at this time.*Doris Walker

Doris Walker - June 02, 2019 at 07:24 PM