

Amanda Jean Allen

March 8, 1935 - June 8, 2019

Obituary

Amanda Jean Allen was born on March 8, 1935 in Pocomoke City, Maryland to the late Elwood Waters, Sr. and Blanche Fields, one out of three siblings. The Lord called her home on Saturday, June 8, 2019 to be with Him eternally.

Jean, as she was known to all, was educated in the public schools of Worcester County, graduating in 1953 from the former Worcester High School in Newark, Maryland. On December 19, 1959, she married her high school sweetheart, David Allen, who preceded her in death.

At an early age, she committed her life to Christ at Trinity United Methodist Church in Pocomoke, Maryland. Jean was very outgoing, active, and loved to sing. She served as a pianist, chair member, director of The Little Wonders (1972–1977), the United Methodist (UM) Women, Lay Servant Ministries, and was also active in the church administration. She later became a member of Mount Zion United Methodist Church, after the discontinuation of Trinity, and remained active during her time there.

Jean leaves to cherish in her memory: one daughter, Faith Wallace (Ervin, Sr.) of Pocomoke City, MD; one son, David Linwood Allen, Jr. of Salisbury, MD; three grandchildren, Ervin Wallace, Jr. of Crisfield, MD and Keonna Crump and Eugene Hoy, Jr., both of Pocomoke City, MD; one great-granddaughter, Kaliah Miller of Pocomoke City, MD; three daughters-in-love, Ursula Johnson, Kimberly Joynes, and Cheryl Marshall, all of Pocomoke City, MD; close friends, Madelyn Tull and Hattie Beckwith, both of Pocomoke City, MD and numerous nieces and nephews.

Her parents, one daughter, Kimolin Allen, one aunt, Minnie Smith and one brother and sister preceded her in death.
