

Angel Alfonso Feliciano-Burgos

May 11, 1971 - September 15, 2012

Angel Alfonso Feliciano (Fonso) was born on May 11, 1971 in Yauco, Puerto Rico. He was the son of Luz E. Burgos.

At the age of three, the family moved to Brooklyn, New York where he was raised by his mother and stepfather, Roberto Ramos. Fonso enjoyed mechanic work, detailing, and helping others with their cars. He also liked to crack jokes. He was a New York Yankees fan. He also had a favorite song, which he loved singing entitled "Puerto Rico" by Frankie Ruiz. He was known by many different nicknames called by his cousins and friends as: Casper, Toto, Puerto Rican gringo, Powder and Redneck. He never was offended and never mad, but always with a smile on his face and in his eyes. Fonso leaves many memories between each of us, so we want to always remember him for whom he was a loving son, husband, devoted father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend.

He is survived by three children, Angel A. Feliciano (Puto), Miguel A. Feliciano (Mickey), Ashlee A. Feliciano (Lele), his wife Ana L Roman, his brother Luis A. Feliciano (Kungfu), his sisters, Ana I. Feliciano (Annie) and Jazmin Ramos, his nieces, Ivette Ortega (Tati) and Violet Ryan, and his maternal grandmother, Esther Galarza. Also in mourning host their aunts, uncles and cousins and loving friends.

“ My condolences to the Family of Angel Feliciano-Burgos. Though we never met I always hope that the words of comfort from the Bible can be of help. Jehovah God's promise that he will " wipe out every tear from their eye's and death will be no more." will soon comfort you. God can not lie. His words are faithfull and true.

“ My heart goes out to you, his family and friends, in this time of loss. When Angel first moved to Pine Ridge, he asked for a little soil from my pile to make a flower garden for his girlfriend and daughter. I keep thinking about how important planting those seeds of beauty were to him and how he always had a smile and kind word for me and I know he was truly a good man who will be deeply missed by all. Please know each and every one of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Via con Dios, Angel...
