“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I am truly going to miss my sister in law who I truly loved. I fell in love with her when I was in the fifth grade when my brother Angelo bought her around. She is not my sister in law, but a sister. I am so glad I was able to see her in February. Nita was always loving and kind. She will always be in my heart. I am so saddened, but I know one day again I will see her. To my family we will get through this because of the help of the LORD. Love Margo

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. As your family and friends support and comfort one another, we, as your neighbors, would like to take a moment to do the same. We find that when we've lost a loved one, the Bible gives us much comfort and hope as we do our best to cope with the grief we all have in such circumstances. As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promises that one day soon he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). What a comforting sure hope to look forward to. That is why Jesus tells us in the Bible to exercise faith in what he will do, as well as appreciate the life he gave in our behalf. By so doing, we will see the blessings that come when this promise is fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16). Just as death is an enemy to mankind, it is also such to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why God promises, and He cannot lie, that He will remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29; Titus 1:2). Hard to believe; but it is from the only one who can fulfill such a promise (Isaiah 55:10, 11). Just think both the living and those brought back to life will enjoy everlasting life as God originally purposed it to be thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). All that God asks of us is that we simply do His Will and not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5, 6) and be blessed as never before. I know this is much to digest at a difficult time like this; but please, when you feel up to it, look these scriptures up in your own Bible and be comforted with a sure hope for the future (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
