

Anna Lee Carter (Armstrong)

September 9, 1930 - July 1, 2019

Obituary

Anna Lee Armstrong Johnson Carter passed away peacefully on Monday, July 1, 2019. She was the eleventh child born to the late George Edward and Annie Mae Armstrong. She attended Flower Street Elementary School in Berlin, Maryland and graduated from Downingtown Boarding School in Downingtown, Pennsylvania. After marriage and raising her children, she returned to school and graduated from Delaware State College in Dover, Delaware with a degree in Elementary Education. She retired from West Dover Elementary (Booker T. Washington) in Dover, Delaware with thirty (30) years of service. Teaching reading was a skill in which she excelled during her teaching career and she also taught four of her grandchildren to read. Teaching and family provided many happy and rewarding memories for her. She was a member of Jireh Christian Center in Dover, Delaware.

In addition to her parents, George and Annie Armstrong, Anna was preceded in death by her sisters, Margaret Ann Armstrong (infant), Airlanta Armstrong, Mary Jane Cottrell, Doris Hampton and Catherine Thomas and her brothers, Harvey Armstrong, George Alton Armstrong, Milton Armstrong, Robert Armstrong and Virgil Armstrong.

She is survived by: one brother, Elwood T. Armstrong of Fairfield, California; her son, Willard Johnson (Francine) of Whaleyville, Maryland, with whom she made her home, and daughter, Louvenia Smith (Reverend Larry Smith) of Dunbar, West Virginia. She has six grandchildren, Sherri Johnson Mullen (Michael), Will Johnson (Rachel), Aaron Johnson (Summer), Christy Johnson, Larrinita Smith and Jonathan Smith and three great-grandchildren, Noah Mullen and Mika and Myles Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends. Anna will be greatly missed by her family and friends.
