“ To the Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Then he continued: He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living. I know that those words mean that those retained in God's memory and will return in the resurrection. Ms Woodson

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is our desire to share some comforting thoughts from the Bible with you (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). For example, the Bible tells us that Jesus Christ will one day personally bring back to life all those who have died (Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29), just as he did when he was a man on earth (John 11:43,44). We all look forward to that promise being fulfilled! We know it's a reality and sure hope, because the Bible makes it clear that it is impossible for God to lie (Hebrews 6:18; Titus 1:2). Until that day comes, may you find comfort and strength to endure the challenges we all face, with the wonderful hope that lies ahead (Matthew 24:13). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
