

Anna Ringgold

August 15, 1926 - July 12, 2014

Early on Saturday morning, God took a walk through His rose garden but could not find his special Rose. He sent an angel down to Chestertown Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in Chestertown, MD to pick-up His missing rare flower, Anna. The angel relayed God's message of "come unto me and rest." On July 12, 2014, Anna gave up her earthly residence to God's will and moved into her heavenly home.

Anna Louise Ringgold, known as "Sister" or "Piggy", was born August 15, 1926 in Ewingtown, MD. She was one of five children to the late Samuel E. Wright and Mable Marion Wright.

Anna received her early education at Richneck Hall in Ewingtown, MD. As a young adult, she moved to New York City. After a few years, she returned home and was employed at Vita Food Company until her retirement. On May 11, 1957, she married the late Linwood Ringgold.

Anna was quiet and soft-spoken, but she was full of jokes. She loved gardening, cooking and being around her family.

Anna was preceded in death by her mother and father Samuel and Mable Wright; her husband, Linwood Ringgold; two brothers, Samuel Wright, Jr. and Amous Goldsboro, Jr. and one sister, Elizabeth Taylor.

Anna leaves to cherish her memory one sister, Lucille Strong (Donald) of Quakerneck, MD; one brother, William L. Wright (Nora) of Ewingtown, MD; one stepson, Linwood Ringgold, Jr.; one sister-in-law, Elsie Jeffers of Millington, MD; one brother-in-law, Rudolph Ringgold of Quakerneck, MD; a special niece, Joyce Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
