“ Dear Family,
It was an honor to know Mrs. Annette Hubbard. I hope that I can have as much grace and peace in my life as I enter that phase of life she mastered so well! She inspired me in every way a lady wants to be inspired. She loved her family and expressed with great detail how she was Blessed by them. She taught me about life and I was never her student in a class-room setting. She will be missed and you have been Blessed to have had her in your life and her legacy lives on through her daughters and granddaughters. Thanks for sharing her with me!

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your mother, Annette Henry Hubbard. She was a special teacher and an inspiration for me when I saw what you can do after retirement.

God Bless and Keep You during this difficult time.

“ What friend we have in Jesus--at this time, he is here to heal all our wounds, sorrows, and sadness. We look to him for comfort. We looking to him for comfort. Praise be to God, this in our hours of suffering. Thank you. I will miss my cousin very much. You will be in my prayers always. I am not there in person but spirit. Love to everyone

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)of restoring all those sleeping in death back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may God grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.- Matthew 5:4.
