

Annie Mae Taylor

March 1, 1918 - December 5, 2012

Annie Mae Taylor, 94, of Crisfield, MD departed this life and went home to be with the Lord on December 5, 2012 at our Lady's Residence in Pleasantville, NJ. Annie was born in Crisfield, MD to Clifton Taylor and Mary Merrill. She had a twin brother, Charlie Taylor and a sister, Mary Taylor; husband, George P. Taylor and beloved son, James Taylor all predeceased.

Annie started working at an early age. She cleaned and cared for several prominent families in Somerset County. She was a seafood worker and took pride in her work.

She attended various churches. Originally Annie was a member of Ebenezer United Methodist Church where she served on the Usher Board. She also attended St. Paul's. Annie was also a member of Open Door of Faith in Mullica Township, NJ. Annie loved Enon Baptist, became a member and church mother until she left to be with her family in NJ due to her health failing.

She was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and friend.

She is survived by her grandchildren, Janella and Justina Taylor of Crisfield, MD, James and William Taylor of Crisfield. She was a beloved mother and grandmother to Bridget Thompson (James) of Pleasantville, NJ; three special grandchildren, Ella Maddox of Marion, MD, William Jones of Marion, MD and Michael Cannon of Crisfield, MD; great-grandchildren, Miguel and ReNetra both of Crisfield, MD, Anjanae Williams and Jaliyah Thompson of Pleasantville, NJ, Justice, JaKailah, JaKeea, Julz, Martino, Romance, Zanay; great-great grandchildren, RaNaye and Cayle, Donté and Baby Salim.