

Anthony Cropper

March 8, 1960 - June 10, 2017

Anthony “Cropp” Cropper was the son of Daniel Dashiell and the late Regenia Dozier. Born on March 8, 1960 in Salisbury, Maryland he departed this life on Saturday, June 10, 2017 in Salisbury, Maryland at the age fifty-six (56).

Anthony attended the Wicomico Public School system. He loved to run and he was next to one of the fastest runners in school. His running mate was Bruce “Flash” White. While in school, Anthony received many medals from Junior Olympics.

“Cropp” held employment as a Masonry/Construction worker for many years. On March 7, 1991 he married his wife, Viola Cropper. They shared twenty-six (26) years of marriage, and while they had their share of ups and downs, good and bad, their love endured until the end.

Anthony was a person everybody loved and he had much love for them. While living on Tilghman Street, he allowed himself to be convinced to attend church. Later in his life, God blessed him with a beautiful little girl named Regina Cropper. She is Anthony’s little twin because when you look at her, you are looking at him.

Special memories of Anthony will be cherished by: his wife, Viola Cropper; his father, Daniel Dashiell; his daughter, Regina Cropper, two grandchildren; five stepchildren; two sisters, Karen Divon and Natalie Dashiell; two brothers, Culon Dashiell and Daniel Dashiell III; two sisters-in-law, Shorn Jones and Betty Johnson; one brother-in-law, Donald Jones and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and special friends who will share in his memories.

He was preceded in death by his mother Regenia Dozier, maternal great grand parents, Otis and Elsie Stewart who raised him, maternal grandparent, Helen Cropper, paternal grandparents, Daniel and Ethel Dashiell, his uncle, Nervon Byrd, mother-in-law, Florence Johnson and father-in-law Charles Nichols.

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. Take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be resurrected or raised up back to life in conditions free from sickness and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4). These are few of many comforting scriptures. For more information on how to cope with the loss of your loved one, please visit www.jw.org.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all. Please look forward to the time when death, sickness and pain will be removed. (Revelation 21:4) Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be comforted and blessed at this most difficult time.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor I pray you also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
