“ My prayers are with the Hearne Family. Yes, Anthony was a "Tree". At the Salvation Army games, Anthony stood over the other kids. He loved sports. I think Anthony "liked" the contact. I once told him "you like that you can "touch" folk and not get in trouble. He shrugged his shoulders, laughed and walked off. We took bus trips to many places. I could count on him keeping an eye on the younger kids. ALWAYS RESPECTFUL. As an adult, he always smiled and gave me a hug. I would see Anthony as an adult. He found his place in life. He ended our conversations letting me know, " Ms. Katrina, I'm Good. My reply would be, Anthony if you are Good, then I'm good and happy for you! A Light has dimmed, but his "Glow" is in our hearts. God Bless him and I Thank God for sharing Anthony with all of us.

“ I worked with Anthony but in a different department. He was one of my favorite people at Qlarant, he could be counted on for his dry sense of humor and always a positive comment in the hallway. Chances are I played basketball against him in our youth and I wish I would have known about the nickname "Tree". So few good folks out there these days and he will be missed. I am heartbroken for the loss and pray for peace for the family. Some shoes can not be filled.

“ To the Hearne Family - I've worked with Anthony for 9 years and it was always a pleasure to talk with him. Anthony brought smiles and a quick wit wherever he went. We would talk about our cats and about our Steelers. I enjoyed Mondays and Wednesdays when he would come into the office. The office will not be the same without his laughter and calm presence. My heart is broken and I will certainly miss you. Sending prayers and love to Anthony's family.

“ One of the highlights of my trip to New Orleans last year was dinner with Anthony and Sharonne on Bourbon Street. You had me laughing so hard, I could hardly eat! And who could forget the street vendor that wanted to polish Jeff's shoes?? Anthony - you were one of a kind and will be missed terribly. RIP my friend.

“ My deepest sympathy to Anthony’s wife, family & friends. We have worked together for the past 9 years. Anthony brought laughter and silliness to our department that I will forever cherish. He was always saying something funny in his dry sense of humor that you couldn’t help but laugh. Some of us raced to sit next to him at meetings and luncheons, knowing it would make for an interesting event. My heart is broken and I will certainly miss you Big Guy. Rest easy Anthony .
