

Anthony D. Savage

April 12, 1960 - April 6, 2014

Anthony “Tony” Darnell Savage passed away surrounded by family on April 6, 2014 at his home in Georgetown, Delaware. Tony was born on February 22, 1960 in Seaford, Delaware to Geraldine M. Savage and Donald L. Cannon. Tony grew up in Seaford and was educated in the Seaford School District. After school, Tony began doing auto and truck repair with his grandfather, Charles H. Savage Sr.. Tony became a master mechanic and, through his work, he made many friends who became family. Well known and respected in the automotive community, he had a reputation as being kind, honest, helpful, loving, trustworthy, friendly and faithful.

A father figure to many, Tony was especially close to his nieces and nephews: Courtney, Michele, Phillip, and Tiffany. Although Tony had no natural children, he had many “adopted” children that cross cultural lines. A visit to his home would confirm all the love, affection and “family” that he had. If you visited his home you would see pictures of people who loved him.

Tony was a jack of all trades and master of most. Aside from his mechanical expertise, he was a wonderful cook who always had enough to share. Friends from miles around knew you could get some of the best barbeque, turkey and dumplings, and chicken soup at Tony’s house. In addition, he loved to garden. Every spring he would have a field full of vegetables and a beautiful flower garden. His other hobbies included having political debates and watching basketball and Nascar on television.

A fierce friend and advocate, Tony was always there to offer a helping hand.

From giving a ride to the store, to traveling to another state to help his friends in the Hispanic community with immigration, he could be counted on faithfully. He loved to make others happy, especially at Christmas time. Children and adults alike, he thought of everyone and loved to see the smiles on their faces. He was our very own Santa Claus, and people couldn't wait to see "Uncle Tony" on Christmas Day. Tony always gave you the feeling that things would be okay. He was a counselor to all, and if he could help solve a problem he would. Tony was a blessing to all of us, and we will be counting those blessings for years to come. He was a light and love to all he met. He was selfless. He was a people person, true friend to all and was loved and respected for his kindness. All the love that Tony left behind will be with us forever. Tony will be in our hearts forever.

Tony was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Charles H. Savage Sr.; paternal grandfather, Brooks Cannon Sr.; his aunt, Lovice Redwine and his cousin, Darin C. Thompson.

Tony is survived by his mother, Geraldine Savage and father, Daniel Cannon of Seaford, Delaware; his maternal grandmother, Irene Savage and paternal grandmother, Catherine Cannon; his sisters, Renee Savage, Bonnie Cannon, Tammy Shaakir and Cathy Cannon; his brothers, Donald Cannon, Preston Cannon and Randall Snow; his nieces, Michele Savage, Tiffany Savage, Shayla Andrews and Shanice Cannon; his nephews, Courtney Savage, Phillip Savage, DeShawn Sample, Julius Cannon, Damon Dillard and Khiry Deshields; and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles, great-nieces and great-nephews and many friends who became family.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Anthony D. Savage, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

SH

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. We all look forward to the near future when the earth will be a renewed paradise and death will be no more. (Rev 21:3,4)

---

Sherry - April 10, 2014 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of one so dearly loved. God's word tells us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8 This gives us hope of being reunited with our loved ones who are sleeping in death. As dead ones come forth from their graves, the earth will be filled with joy as never before. Mark 5:39-42 May meditating on this future miracle bring you comfort.

---

M. Starke - April 10, 2014 at 12:00 AM

PL

“ Condolences to the Savage family. I am so sorry to learn of your loss. The Holy Scriptures assure us that the time will soon come when mankind's enemy death will be no more. May you find comfort in the words found in the Bible book of Isaiah 25: 8 when it speaks of a time when almighty God will swallow up death forever and tears will be wiped from mankind faces.

---

P Land - April 09, 2014 at 12:00 AM

NF

“ My sincere condolences to the Savage family. Tony was a very nice and great person. We will miss him dearly here. God Bless your family.

---

Nicole Fitzgerald - April 09, 2014 at 12:00 AM

MJ

“ I am so sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. As you prepare to lay them to rest; to sleep in death for just a little while (John 11:11) I hope your family will find solace in the resurrection promise of Jesus; to awaken those who are now sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) restoring them back to life; this time with the hope to live eternally on the renewed Paradise earth, so that God's will, will be done on the earth, as it is in Heaven..-Matthew 6:9,10; Luke 23:43. Until that wonderful blessed promise is fulfilled, and you are reunited with your loved one again; may GOD(Psalms 83:18) soothe your grieving hearts now and grant you peace and comfort, during this most grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

---

Mattie Jones - April 09, 2014 at 12:00 AM