Obituary

Anthony Tyrone Spaddy was born on June 8, 1956 to the late Robert Spaddy and the late Margie Merrill in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He departed this life on Sunday, April 2, 2023 after a brief illness at Medstar Harbor Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

He received his elementary and junior high school education in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He later relocated to Pocomoke City, Maryland and completed his education in the public schools of Worcester County, Maryland.

Anthony acquired a liking for cooking at a very early age. He spent many hours with his mother in the kitchen helping to prepare family dishes. He enjoyed dishes prepared by family members on Eastern Shore. During his daily conversations with his Aunt Beck, he always spoke of a traditional family Sunday morning breakfast on the Eastern Shore. He loved his grandmother's (Mama) hot rolls and macaroni and cheese. Because of his great culinary skills, he was gainfully employed by several restaurants in Ocean City, Maryland. He also enjoyed cooking holiday meals for his longtime companion Towanda Yarbor and her family.

After leaving the Eastern Shore, he returned to his hometown of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and was employed at Penn Fruit. He continued using his culinary skills after relocating to Fort Washington, Maryland. He later moved to Anne Arundel County, Maryland. His last employment sites were at Walmart and Arundel House of Hope.

Anthony was a loving person who demonstrated a gentle and loving spirit and truly enjoyed helping others. He gave freely and joyfully of his time and finances to those in need. As stated, in Luke 6:35, Anthony's life reflected these words: "But love your enemies, do good to them, and lean to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked."

Anthony was preceded in death by his mother, Margie Lillian Merrill; his father, Robert Spaddy, and his sister, Deborah Spaddy.

He leaves to cherish his memories a longtime companion, Tawanda Yarbor, a brother Daryl Spaddy, Sr.; niece, Brittany Spaddy; nephew, Daryl Spaddy, Jr.; two aunts, Rebecca Mickey and Delores Downing; two uncles, Stanley Coulbourne and Percy Byrd; his cousin, Barbara Stevenson (Everett) whom he referred to as aunt, a long time and devoted friend, Gary Price (Deborah), his companion's; three children, Jordan, Donnell and Dominique, and the apple of his eye, BABY LUNA.

He also leaves to cherish his memories, a host of cousins, neighbors, and friends.
