

Antron L. Rasin

August 27, 1983 - July 20, 2019

Antron, better known as “Twon”, was born on August 27, 1983, in Goldsboro, North Carolina, to William and Blanche Rasin. He departed this life on July 20, 2019.

Twon attended elementary school at Camp LeJeune, North Carolina. He moved to Dover, Delaware, in June of 1992, where he attended William Henry Middle School and Dover High School. After school, Antron joined the Job Corps in Baltimore, Maryland, where he received his masonry license. Antron was a “Jack-of-All-Trades:” in various jobs, such as roofing and construction.

Antron was a kindhearted person who was full of laughter. He enjoyed watching sports and action movies, listening to music and helping his parents with projects around the house.

He is survived by his parents, William and Blanche Rasin; a daughter, Naz-Arai Evans; two brothers, Antonio and Anthony (Arielle) Rasin; one nephew, Anthony Rasin, Jr.; four nieces, Antonia, Sophia, Jayla and Jayde Rasin; two uncles, Dwight (Delores Rasin) Phillips and Jervis (Linda Rasin) Seals; and a host of cousins and friends.
