

Arlivia Tate

March 26, 1922 - March 1, 2013

Arlivia Gertrude Hackett Tate, affectionately called “Aunt Tuddy”, was born to the late Walter & Rose Hackett on March 26, 1922 in Big Woods. She departed this life at University of Maryland Medical Center in Baltimore, Maryland on March 1, 2013.

She was employed at Campbell Soup and Vita Foods and as a domestic worker. After various jobs, she became a full time home maker.

She met and married Wilson Tate in 1952. Arlivia had a son, Clifton Graves and a step-daughter, Geneva Sudler. From Wilson and Arlivia union was born Valentina and Wilson, Jr.

She loved God and her family. Her hobbies were cooking, singing, talking gardening, mowing grass and taking care of others.

Arlivia gave her life to Christ at an early age. She was a member of Asbury United Methodist Church. She sang with the Stars of Hope.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Wilson Tate, Sr.; her son, Clifton Graves; sister, Corthina (Emory) Somerville, Martha (James) Cotton, Rosetta (Russell) Ford, Anna (Edward) Perkins and Magnolia Gaines; brother, George Hackett, Clarence (Louise) Hackett, Weldon Hackett, Willis Hackett, Hezekiah

Hackett, Leo Hackett, Jasper (Pearl) Hackett, Robert (Louise) Hackett and Sam (Edith) Hackett; two grandsons, Ulysses Sudler and Herbert Sudler, Jr.

She is survived by daughter, Valentina Tate; her son, Wilson Tate, Jr. (Jacqueline); step-daughter, Geneva Sudler (Herbert); daughter-in-law, Sandra Graves; Derrick Tate; twelve grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; and a special friend, Jeanette Johnson.

Tribute Wall

MJ

“ I am sorry that you are experiencing the loss of your love one; please accept my sincere condolences. I am sure Arlivia will be missed by family and friends. When death strikes, the pain can be devastating, but know that Jehovah God cares and He will sustain you during this time of sorrow.-I Peter 5:7; Psalms 55:22. Jesus gives us a hope for all those who have fallen asleep in death; with the help of God's holy spirit, he will soon awaken them from death; restoring them back to life, to live forever on the paradise; being reunited with their families.-John 5:28,29; 11:11-44; Luke 8:49-56; Psalms 37:29. May God continue to comfort and bless the Tate Family.-Isaiah 66:13.

Mattie Jones - March 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM