

Arnetia Aldrina Simmons

November 24, 1924 - October 15, 2012

On Monday, October 15, 2012, God dispatched an angel and called our mother, Arnetia A. Simmons home to rest.

Arnetia was born on November 24, 1924, in Harlem Hospital in New York City to the late Charles Paul and Beatrice Bell. She was the oldest of two girls. She was preceded in death by her sister, Junie.

She graduated from Harlem High School. She later married Harold Simmons who also preceded her in death. She was a member of South Congregation in Brooklyn, NY Arnetia retired from Chase Manhattan Bank. In April of 2005, she moved with her daughters to Dover, Delaware.

Arnetia was very fashionable and loved to dance. She would always talk about how her mother, Beatrice would have to always walk to the Savoy Dance Hall in Harlem and drag her home because she forgot about her curfew. She loved all types of music and traveling. She enjoyed life to the fullest.

Arnetia was a fantastic mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great grandmother and friend. Our family is very blessed to have had her for so long.

Arnetia was preceded in death by one daughter, Agatha Ford. She leaves to mourn her three daughters, Nancy Walker (George), Arline Brown (Albert) and Kim Browning; 15 grandchildren; 56 great-grandchildren; 17 great-great grandchildren; one niece; one nephew and a host of cousins, family and friends.
