

Aubrey L. Jarvis

May 24, 1939 - September 13, 2015

Aubrey Lee Jarvis, Sr. was born to Simon Jarvis and Esther Lamb on May 24, 1939 in Norfolk, VA. He graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in the 1950's and joined the Air Force immediately following.

He loved getting dressed in the latest, sharpest tailor-made suits and his awesome hats. It was the norm to see him cruising by in his fancy cars. He had the best words at the worst times to make it all seem okay; Aubrey Jarvis, the "advice guru." He was an unconditionally loving son, father, brother, grandfather, uncle, friend and most importantly, husband. He helped mold and shape the lives of many people, especially the troubled youth in the community. There wasn't a time that he wouldn't stop what he was doing to give kind, sometimes harsh, words of encouragement. He was and still is absolutely the best.

He was preceded in death by his father, Simon Jarvis; his mother, Esther Jarvis; his brother, Simon Jarvis, Jr. and a special aunt, Aleatha Butts.

He left a mega legacy starting with his beautiful wife of 54 years, Doris Jarvis of Milton, DE; his loving daughters, Linda Silvils of Hartford, CT, Edna Morris (Takoi) of Dover, DE, Patricia Ayers (Damon) of Coolspring, DE, Angelita Jarvis of Rehoboth, DE, Alicia Jarvis of Dover, DE and Doris Hagans (Alphonso) of Milton, DE. He also had five sons, Larry Silvils of Dover, DE, Aubrey Jarvis, Jr. of Virginia Beach, VA, Aubrey Jarvis, III (Sherry) of Dover, DE, Antonio Jarvis of Dover, DE, Timothy Jarvis (Yvette) of Milford, DE and a very special son, Frank Halstead (Barbara) of Virginia Beach, VA; as well as a huge host of nieces, nephews, cousins and grandchildren.

“ 3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them.+ 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,+ and death will be no more,+ neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.+ The former things have passed away.” I hope Ms. Aubrey Janis family and friends find comfort in this scripture.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope you will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.Matthew 5:4.
