“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection(Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Jesus said: "Five sparrows sell for two coins of small value, do they not? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Have no fear; you are worth more than many sparrows." Luke 12:6 If God cares so much about a tiny sparrow, how much more does he care about man who was created in his image. Genesis 1:26 He is aware of the pain you feel from losing your loved one. It also pains him to see your pain. John 11:35 Almighty God told Daniel: "You will rest, but you will stand up." Daniel 12:13 Also, many of those asleep in dust of the earth will wake up." Daniel 12:2 This extends to you the possibility of seeing your deceased loved one again right here on earth under perfect conditions. May pondering over these promises from God bring you comfort.
