“Condolence from Leroy, to the Lake family. Have the Lake family ever wonder if there will ever be victory over death? Here are some Scriptures to answer that question. (Isaiah 25:8.)---He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away tears from all faces. (1 Corinthians 15:26.)---The last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing. May JEHOVAH GOD and Christ Jesus comfort the Lake family in their time of sorrow. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“I didn't know Mr. Lake personally my hope is for everyone. It is a hope of a resurrection. Most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will.....come out." (John 5: 28, 29) In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43) This promised futures includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans. The Bible says: "The righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it." --Psalm 37:29.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.
