

Avery Orlando Dozier Sr.

February 4, 1963 - December 20, 2018

Avery Orlando “Hank” Dozier, passed away peacefully on Thursday, December 20, 2018 in Winder, Georgia at the age of fifty-five (55). He was born on February 4, 1963 in Salisbury, Maryland to the late Alethia Dozier Harris and Wilmer McElvey St. (Preacher).

To know Hank was to know that he had a warm heart and a sense of humor that was beautiful, if you were fortunate enough to see it shine through. He was a well-respected, protecting, proud family man and a wearer of many hats. Literally.

A man of few words, a self-proclaimed landscaper (key word: SELF), and an avid movie watcher, Hank spent much of his time exactly where he wanted to be: home. Being surrounded by an all girl gang, his family (and his yard) were his top priorities.

In his final days, at the height of his fight, and during the holiday season (his most favorite time of the year), he wanted nothing more than to make sure his family was okay. He held on longer and fought harder until he knew in his heart that it was okay to go.

Hank is survived by his loving wife of twenty-three (23) years, Angela Venise Dozier. The two were married on August 5, 1995 and later moved to Georgia where Hank lived out the remainder of his life.

He leaves behind and will forever live in the hearts of his two daughters, Tanisha Cropper and Brittney Dozier and his son, Avery Dozier. He was also the proud grandfather of Chanan Finch, Kylee and Derell Cottman and Arabella Chamberlain. He is further survived by two sisters, Natalie Dozier and Julia Stanley; father and mother-in-law, Louis and Doris Reid Hank will be lovingly remembered by his devoted friends, Kevin Kellam and Troy Baker, his aunt and uncles, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law and a number of nieces, nephews, and family members.

Hank was preceded in death by a sister, Beatrice Morgan Holden and three brothers, Troy Dozier, Leedell "Leaky" McElvey and Wilmer "Boonie" McElvey, Jr.

Hank will forever be remembered. He will always be here and will live on in the hearts of many.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." II Timothy 4:7

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ To the Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Then he continued: He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living. I know that those words mean that those retained in God's memory and will return in the resurrection. Ms Woodson
