“ To The Family, Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. I hope this will also help you. \u201cNo more will be an infant living a few days only or the old man not living out his days\u201d. Isaiah 65:20 In the coming new world under God\u2019s Kingdom, every child will have the prospect of a secure future. Never will death claim a God-fearing man in his prime. On the contrary, obedient humankind will be safe, secure, and able to enjoy life. Again, you have my deepest sympathy.

“ Dear Family, My deepest sympathy for the loss of your precious Baby Jean Marie,. Losing any of our dear ones cuts deep, but especially when it's a child, it's much deeper. Please draw comfort that when we wipe our tears away our Creator does not, in fact he counts each tear, collects them and makes a record for its cause. He is fully aware of all sorrow and will rectify matters in the near future. (Psalm 56:8) If you would like to learn more please visit jw.org/

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ You have my deepest sympathy for the loss of your precious baby, Jean Marie . While you are grieving, I hope you will find comfort from the Scriptures and the accounts about young children who passed away and restored back to life by the prophets, Elijah and Elisha(I Kings 17:8-24: II Kings 4:8-37) the apostle Paul(Acts 20:7-12)and Jesus Christ when he restored a young girl back to life, just imagine the parent's joy. And when he saw a funeral procession of the only son of a widow; he approached the bier, touched the young boy and restored him back to life.(Luke 7:11-15;.Luke 8:49-56). Just imagine the joy when Jesus in the near future, resurrect and restore millions back to life on the renewed Paradise earth and you are reunited with your loved one. Until then, may GOD (Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43; Matthew 5:4.

“Offering my condolence to the family and friends of Infant Jean Marie. As you cherish the memory of her, reflect on the time when sickness, death & sorrow will be conditions of the past! (Revelation 21:3,4; 1Corinthians 15: 26) This is what our loving God Jehovah has promised and Jesus Christ himself guaranteed the hope of seeing our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15; Isaiah 26:19) May God's word strengthen & comfort you at this difficult time & each day to come, as we await the fulfillment of his promises! (Joshua 23:14)

“To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Baby Jean. Please find comfort in the words of Isaiah 65:17, 20: "For look! I am creating new heavens and a new earth... No more will there be an infant from that place who lives but a few days." How wonderful will life be during this time in which the earth will be new. No more death.
