“ As a Mother myself, my heart goes out to you and the anguish inside. Losing a loved one is one of the most difficult things we as humans face, and when it is our own child the pain can not be put into words, just tears. We have a heartwarming promise from our loving Creator that he is there catching everyone of our tears (psalms 56:8), and he is longing to bring your precious child back to you. These are not false promises, those are promises to hold close to our heart.

“ Parents and Family of Baby Boy Pierce; I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to you in the loss of your baby. Losing a loved one is always difficult, but when it is your child, it is heartbreaking! May your family, friends and most of all, Almighty God be with and strengthen you in the days and months ahead. (Isaiah 41:10, 13) Please try to obtain the brochure “When Someone you Love Dies”(jw.org). It was very comforting to me during my time of lost. Again, my condolences.

“ To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. I hope this will also help you. “No more will be an infant living a few days only or the old man not living out his days”. Isaiah 65:20
In the coming new world under God’s Kingdom, every child will have the prospect of a secure future. Never will death claim a God-fearing man in his prime. On the contrary, obedient humankind will be safe, secure, and able to enjoy life.
Again, you have my deepest sympathy.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ You have my deepest sympathy for the loss of your precious baby boy, Pierce .While you are grieving, I hope you will find comfort from the Scriptures and the accounts about young children who passed away and restored back to life by the prophets, Elijah and Elisha(I Kings 17:8-24: II Kings 4:8-37) the apostle Paul(Acts 20:7-12)and Jesus Christ when he restored a young girl back to life, just imagine the parent's joy. And when he saw a funeral procession of the only son of a widow; he approached the bier, touched the young boy and restored him back to life.(Luke 7:11-15;.Luke 8:49-56). Just imagine the joy when Jesus in the near future, resurrect and restore millions back to life on the renewed Paradise earth and you are reunited with your loved one. Until then, may GOD (Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43; Matthew 5:4.

“ Grief can be hard, may your family find strength in God promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
