

Barbara A Brown

September 17, 1938 - May 15, 2016

Barbara A. Brown was born on September 17, 1938 to the late Charles and Martha Brown at home in Ewingtown, Maryland. "Rant" or "Bobbie Ann" as she was affectionately called departed this life early Sunday morning, May 15, 2016, University of Maryland Shore Medical Center at Easton, MD.

Barbara was educated in the Queen Anne County School System, graduating in 1956 from Kennard High School, Centreville, Maryland. Upon graduation, she was employed by the Campbell Soup Company for a short period of time. Later she became a part of the Washington College Dietary Department where she retired after 40 plus years.

Barbara enjoyed cooking, watching TV (Food Network, Sports, Soaps), talking on the telephone and utilizing her cosmetology skills throughout the town and neighboring communities. Though she received no formal training in pressing/styling hair, she had a special gift from God to make the female head look good.

Barbara joined Janes United Methodist Church where she served faithfully as an usher. She also served with the kitchen ministry and the United Methodist Women until her health would not allow it. As the church participated in the towns yearly Re-enactment of the Boston Tea Party, she could be found helping to make the crab cakes and white potato pies.

Barbara was preceded in death by her sisters; Jean Brown, Elizabeth Rochester and Shirley Washington and one brother, William Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memories her son, Wilbert A. Wilson (Doretha); daughter, Lorie A. Proctor; two grandsons; sister, Y. Lorraine Knight, Baltimore; five brothers; Charles M. Brown, Jr., Florida, Sterling E. Brown (Brenda), Clayton, Delaware, Wayne W. Brown, Sr. (Wanda), Florida, James A. Brown, Butlertown and Marvin E. Brown, Landover; special niece, Desiree S. Rochester; plus a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

“ Dear Brown Family,

I am very saddened by the passing of Barbara Ann but I know she is now truly at peace. I hope that the cherished memories and the love and friendship around you, will comfort all of you through this time of sorrow. Hold on to each other tightly because strength comes in numbers.

*"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." -
Psalms 30:5*

*With heartfelt sympathy,
Mary Ann Gilbert-Brown*

The one who has dealings with the stupid will fare badly.—Prov. 13:20.

A child could drift away gradually on a spiritually dangerous path, being tempted by harmful association or degrading entertainment.

To prevent such a situation from developing, act quickly if you recognize potential weak spots. Work at fortifying Christian qualities that your children have but that may need to be strengthened. (2 Pet. 1:5-8) The regular period for family worship is an excellent time for you to do that. In outlining this arrangement, the October 2008 Kingdom Ministry stated: “Family heads are encouraged to shoulder their responsibility before Jehovah to ensure that a meaningful, regular program of family Bible study is followed.” Are you taking full advantage of this loving provision to shepherd your children? Trust that your children deeply appreciate your putting priority on taking care of their spiritual need.—Matt. 5:3; Phil. 1:10.

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection, when Jesus will restore life to the dead(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
