

Barbara Jean Dorman

October 30, 1946 - July 29, 2015

Barbara Jean "Hutt" Dorman was born on October 30, 1946 in Salisbury, Maryland to the late Ralph Dorman and Hazel Hutt. She entered into her eternal rest on July 29, 2015. Barbara graduated from Salisbury High School (now known as Salisbury Middle School) in 1965. In 1966, she became the proud mother of a beautiful baby girl, named Sophia Dorman (named after Sophia Loren).

Barbara relocated to Wilmigton, Delaware in 1966, where she remained for over 14 years, she returned to Salisbury in the 80's. Barbara was a gifted, creative, and talented individual, who enjoyed sewing, re-upholstery, decorating, and cooking. She especially enjoyed quality time spent talking and laughing with her daughter, six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. Additionally, she enjoyed having a good time with other family and friends at various events. Barbara was a fun and loving individual who always put the need of others before her own. If anyone was ever homeless or hungry, Barbara was there for them.

Barbara recieved Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and fellowshipped at Greater Grace Fellowship Ministries under Apostle Jackson.

Barbara leaves to celebrate her life, her loving daughter, Sophia Dorman; two sisters , Linda (Paul) Deal (Salisbury), and Delores Gross (New York); one sister-in-law, Blanche Dunnum (Wilmington); four nieces Lynette Bell (Reistertown), Gernelle "Nellie" Barber, Latrial "Sugar Pebbles" Dunnum (Wilmington); three nephews, Maurice "Maverick" Dorman (Delmar, Curtis

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God promises that in the near future He is going to remove death and the causes of death, sickness and pain. (Revelation 21:3&4) He tells us in His word the bible that He is going to resurrect those sleeping in death. (Acts 24:15) So please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be comforted and blessed.
