

Barbara Jean Frazier

June 27, 1954 - May 8, 2018

Barbara Jean Frazier, born June 27, 1954 in Lewes Delaware, died May 8, 2018 surrounded by loved ones at Beebe Medical Center in Lewes, Delaware. She was 63 years old.

Barbara, known to many as “Jeanie”, attended Cape Henlopen High School. She was known for her free spirit, sharp tongue and cooking skills.

Throughout her life, she served as cook at many of the local restaurants in Rehoboth Beach. She enjoyed most, her morning talks with her daughters and sisters, coffee visits with her brothers, and spending time with her canine children Butterfly and Coco, afternoons watching the Young and the Restless, and evenings watching Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy. She was a caregiver to many and became a second mother and grandmother to not only family, but friends of family members. She was always there to provide a strong hand and a hot plate for those in need.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, Elton Leroy Frazier, Sr., Viola Mae Frazier and sister Stella Frazier. She is survived by and leaves to cherish her memory, daughters, Violet M. Frazier and son-in-law Jerry Jackson and Michelle L. Sparks and husband Anthony V. Sparks; bonus daughter, Timesha ‘B.B.’ Cannon; grandson Antonio E. Morris; great-grandchildren, Jah’Ziah Z. Morris, Audriana M. Sparks and Alyssa M. Swain; siblings, Siretta Y. Jarmon and husband Carter Jarmon, Elton L. Frazier, Jr.,

Bernadette Frazier, Earl Frazier and wife Renea Frazier, Lutricia Holmes-Brickhouse, Nathaniel Frazier and wife Ann Hines, Rodney Frazier and wife Sheena Frazier, Laurette Frazier, James Frazier and wife Amelia 'Sweetie' Frazier, Isaac Frazier and wife Nina Frazier and Patricia Frazier; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, dear friends, family and colleagues.
