“ Aunt Barbara, you will be missed. I'll never forget my last time with you in the hospital. You could not speak but you were able to communicate with me. You called me your baby, and growing up, that's who I was, whether in Chance or in Salisbury. I have much peace that I'll see you again. You squeezed my hand and blinked your eyes to reassure me you knew where you were going. Until then, rest on with Jesus.

“ To the family of the late Barbara Jones,
It was good to have met you. When you asked me to do your hair, I remember within a half hour of talking, I knew your whole life story. LOL. Just to know later in the conversation that we were related. Ever since that moment in time you welcome me in your home as if I was a part of your family. On the phone for a 10 minute question, I sat down and made time for cousin Barbara to talk, hours at a time. LOL. She was a diamond in the ruff. No one can out do her pleasant hospitality. Take your rest, good night for now, see you in the morning!!!
