

Barbara L. Ocasio

May 21, 1961 - November 29, 2018

Barbara L. Ocasio, was the third child of Bobby and Birdie Lyle Haynes.

A child that loved life and made friends everywhere she went and left loving memories in Clarksville, Tennessee, Lauderhill, Florida and Chestertown, Maryland.

She had a smile that would lift your spirit, even when she was hurting. She never lost her smile and now she wants everyone to keep smiling, if not for yourself, for her, because a smile can mend broken hearts and wipe tears away. So, when you think of her, smile, because she is smiling in glory!

Keep Smiling!

“ To the Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Then he continued: He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living. I know that those words mean that those retained in God's memory and will return in the resurrection. Ms Woodson

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Revelation 21:4). I hope these thoughts comfort you also.
