

Baron Antionne Polk

December 11, 1960 - February 27, 2025

BARON'S JOURNEY

Baron "Barry" Antionne Polk, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, transitioned at the age of sixty-four (64) on Thursday, February 27, 2025 at Tidal Health in Salisbury, Maryland. Barry was born to the late Kirklan Polk and Marion Polk on December 11, 1960 in Salisbury, Maryland. Barry was a member of St. Paul AME Zion church. He rededicated his heart to Christ in March 2020.

Barry received his formal education in the Wicomico County Public School System, graduating from James M. Bennett Sr. High School in 1978. Barry had a love for music. He was in the marching band and a member of the jazz band while in high school. Upon graduation, he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, and served as a machine gunnery. After many years of employment, he retired from Salisbury University.

United in holy matrimony with Vera C. White on April 30, 1988, to this union two children were born, Bryan Anthony and Brandon Alexander Polk. Barry loved to talk and tell stories. He was a die-hard Raider's fan. When he was younger, skating at Skateland was his all-time favorite past-time.

Loving memories will remain with: his loving wife of thirty-seven (37) years, Vera Polk; sons, Bryan (Mariah) Polk and Brandon Polk; his mother, Marion

Polk; sister, Aimee (Bernardo) Handy; sister-in-law, Gail White; three brothers-in-law, Wesley White, Warren White and Nelson (Kristina) White; five grandchildren, Zion Christopher, Mina Jones, Jakaiden Mills, Liam Polk and Judah Polk; two goddaughters, Tanikia Wherry and Courtney Smith and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other loved ones.

Baron was preceded in death by his father, Kirklan Polk, his father-in-law and mother-in-law, James and Tabiothy White, and his brother-in-law, Troy White.
