

Beatrice Needam

August 13, 1919 - July 31, 2015

Beatrice Needam, 95, departed this life on Friday, July 31, 2015 at her home. She was the daughter of the late Frank O. Milbourne and Carrie R. Milbourne. "Aunt Bea" or "Bea" as she was known by many received her education in the Accomack County Public Schools. After graduation she moved to Philadelphia Pennsylvania. She was employed with The City of Philadelphia in the Mayors Office of Aging, The School District of Philadelphia as a Noon Time Aide and as a CNA at Edith R. Rudolph Residence for The Blind, and had other various jobs.

Beatrice was a member of First Baptist Church in Mappsville, where she gave her life to Christ and was baptized. When she moved to Philadelphia, Bea became a member of Beulah Baptist Church, where she served on the usher board, and several other ministries. She loved her church family and enjoyed traveling to different church retreats and seminars.

"Aunt Bea" was a straight forward and strong willed person, she was the type of person that if it was on her mind she would tell you. She was a fun loving and caring person. She would always say something that would make you laugh. All of her nieces and nephews loved and looked up to her, as she was a woman of wisdom. Her favorite foods were fried chicken, fish and navy beans.

She leaves cherished memories with: three great nephews, Marcellous Bundick (Barbara), William Milbourne, Jr. and Linwood Washington; one great niece, Joetta Fisher; a host of great nephews, nieces; a host of great great nephews, nieces and one, great great great, nephew.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by, four brothers, Julius, Noah, Frank and William; five sisters, Australia, Rethell, Josephine, Flossie and Phyllis.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future.(Revelation 21:3&4) He also promises in Acts 24:15 that He is going to resurrect those who are asleep in death. So please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be comforted and blessed.
