“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. When such things happen we just cannot help but think about our own life and how fragile life can be. May you find support and encouragement from family and friends. Comfort and an assured hope from the Bible is also very helpful in coping with your grief. Jesus promised that the day would come when those who have died will hear his voice and come back to life again (John 5:28, 29). Death is an enemy not only to mankind but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). He purposes to one day soon according to His Word, the Bible get rid of forever all pain, suffering, and death (Revelation 21:3-5). His purpose for mankind has always been to enjoy life under such conditions forever right here on earth (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). His word is true and His promises never fail (Isaiah 55:11). So may this help comfort you as you look forward to glorious days ahead! If and when you can please look these scriptures up in your own Bible. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
