“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. It is at difficult times like this we even more well-appreciate the preciousness of our loving relationships. My wife and I have been married for some 50 years now. During challenging times in our life we have much comfort and hope in Almighty God's Word, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Jesus tells us that soon those who have died will "hear his voice" and come back to life again to enjoy life the way God meant it to be in the beginning (John 5:28, 29; Genesis 1:28). And, of course, enjoying life on a beautiful paradise earth where there will be no more pain, sorrow or even death was and still is God's purpose for mankind (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 55:11). According to the Bible that day is coming soon! Until then may you find comfort and hope in searching the thinking of God within His holy scriptures (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
